From the Secretary's Desk

What a great Convention in Des Moines (Johnston), the Stoney Creek Inn was a great new venue. Thank you Des Moines Coin Club and Chris Seuntjens for all the work to put on such a great show.

Time to talk about dues again. You can pay dues at Coin-a-Rama in Nevada, Feb 22-23. I'll send dues notices out after the show in Nevada. Save the INA some postage and see me at the show.

Annual Board Meeting

October 26, 2002

Johnston , Iowa

President Tom Robertson called the meeting to order. Because the minutes are published in The Collector, it was decided to forego the reading and accept them as published.

What's happening with the state quarter program? The Mint has sent the designs back to the Governor and he is to send them back by December or January.

Chris Seuntjens reported on the tax repeal. Chris is hoping to be able to work with Carmine Boal of Ankeny after elections.

Is there a central mailing list for INA shows? The Bourse Chairman could give a list to the Secretary so it could be passed on to the next Bourse Chairman.

Tom brought up the fact that our INA Districts are supposed to be the same as legislative districts – they are not – should we redistrict?

The INA trailer has two flat tires, what should we do about the trailers and the cases? Should we sell them at auction? Should we sell them at one of the INA shows? We'll discuss it again tomorrow.

The INA Show for 2003 will be in Sioux City and the 2004 show will be in Fort Dodge.

JoAnn Peters reported she had collected $585 for advertising in The Collector.

Tom announced the election results:

Upcoming INA Shows were announced, 2003 will be in Sioux City and 2004 in Fort Dodge. Will Fort Dodge be doing something with the Iowa quarter?

Brian Fanton gave a report on ICTA. They had put out a packet on the Patriotic Act, which basically spells out the reporting laws. Chris Seuntjens gave a report on the sales tax repeal effort. He'll be getting with Carmine Boal of Ankeny after the elections. Chris suggested we need to continue contacting our legislators. Personal phone calls seem to work best, E-Mails tend to be deleted if they don't know the sender. Sam Ashton mentioned Cherrie Weise was willing to look into the matter if elected.

Dale Dye motioned that we adjourn, Tom seconded and the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

A Message From the Your President!

Winter is here and this is the time of year that I really look forward to coin collecting. Spring, summer and fall all draw me outside. Sunny days, gardening, yard work, sailing, running and loads of other chores and pleasures occupy my time. When winter comes as it always does I get excited about coin collecting. A glass of wine, a hot fire and a good numismatic book or magazine and I am happy as a lark.

This is also the time of year for some of Iowa's best coin shows. This year we have a new show in Dubuque on Feb. 9. Shortly after that we have the coin-a-rama in Nevada and the Cedar Rapids show followed by several other super shows. With the recent increases in gold coin values I think these shows will have great turnouts. I plan on attending as many of these as I can and look forward to seeing many of you soon.

I look forward to representing you all for the next 2 years so if you have any ideas for the club please let me know and I will bring them up at the next meeting.

With pleasure
Scott Nichols
